There has been no abatement in the strength of the offensive the British, American troops are throwing against the German armies from Arras to the region of Soissons. And as yet there is no indication that And as yet there is no indication that it is the purpose of the seemingly demornized enemy to turn about and face their aggressors or to offer more resistance for the present than through the activities of strong reer being offered by machine gunners in guards.

Not alone have the allied troops all over the battle front from Arras to Sozzons sained further imperiant terrain, but to the north the British have advanced their line materially in the famous Lys sector and agrarently without much effort on the part of the foc to restrain them. Of greater significance than any of the other part of orced/ back the British to their wester significance than any of the other victories achieved in Friday's fight-ing is in the sain of the French, with whom Americans are brigaded in this general sector, north of Soissons.
